DAY 28 – STANDING FIRM IN THE GOSPEL

📖 Scripture

Philippians 1:27

“Let your conduct be worthy of the gospel of Christ.”

🌱 Meditation

Evangelism is not limited to what we say; it is also reflected in how we live. Our conduct, attitudes, choices, and character should reflect the Gospel we proclaim.

Sharing Christ with others requires us to live consistently with the truth we profess. When our lives reflect integrity, love, humility, and grace, the message of the Gospel becomes more credible to those watching us.

We are called not only to preach the Gospel but also to stand firm in it, allowing its truth to shape every area of our lives.

The message must match the messenger. Stand firm in truth and grace.

💭 Reflection

Does my daily conduct reflect the Gospel of Christ?

- Is my lifestyle consistent with the truth I proclaim?
- Does my conduct draw others closer to Christ or create a stumbling block?

🙏 Confession

My life is worthy of the Gospel of Christ. I stand firm in truth and grace. My conduct, words, and actions reflect the character of Jesus. I walk in integrity, humility, and love. I am consistent in my faith, and my life gives credibility to the Gospel I proclaim. I remain steadfast in Christ, in Jesus' name. Amen.

✍️ Personal Notes

1. What does it mean to live in a manner worthy of the Gospel?

---

2. In what areas of my life do I need greater consistency with the Gospel I proclaim?

---

3. How can my conduct make the Gospel more credible to those around me?

---

4. What does standing firm in truth and grace look like in my daily life?
