

DAY 22 – SERVING BY GRACE

Scripture

1 Corinthians 15:10

"By the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain."

Meditation

Service is sustained by grace, not human effort alone. God never intended for you to carry out His assignments by depending entirely on your own strength. His grace empowers you to do what He has called you to do, even when you feel weak, tired, or inadequate.

The Apostle Paul recognized that everything he had become and accomplished was by the grace of God. He worked diligently, yet he understood that God's grace was working through him. This teaches us that grace does not eliminate our responsibility; it empowers us to fulfill it.

When you depend only on your own ability, service can become exhausting, burdensome, and discouraging. But when you rely on God's strength, you can serve with joy, humility, and renewed purpose. You learn when to act, when to pray, when to rest, and when to ask for help.

You do not have to prove your worth through endless activity. Your identity is rooted in God's grace, and your service should flow from that grace. Remain faithful in your assignment, give your best, and trust God to supply the strength you need.

Today, stop striving as though everything depends on you. Depend on God, serve faithfully, and allow His grace to work through you.

Reflection

Serve by grace, not burnout.

Are you depending on God's grace or relying entirely on your own strength? What practical step can you take today to serve faithfully while making room for prayer, rest, and renewed strength?

Confession

I serve by the grace of God. His strength perfects my weakness. I do not depend on my ability alone, but on the grace of God working in me. I serve faithfully, joyfully, and with a willing heart. I refuse to be driven by pressure, pride, or the need to prove myself. God's grace strengthens me, sustains me, and equips me to fulfill my assignment. I give my best while trusting Him for the strength I need. His grace toward me will not be in vain.
