DAY 10 – THE ROLE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT IN EVANGELISM

📖 Scripture

John 16:8

"He will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment."

🌱 Meditation

You are not alone when sharing the Gospel. The Holy Spirit is actively at work in the hearts of those who hear the message. While you are called to speak the truth about Jesus, it is the Holy Spirit who brings conviction to the heart.

This means evangelism does not depend on your ability to persuade people through impressive words or arguments. Your responsibility is to share the Gospel faithfully, clearly, and with love, trusting the Holy Spirit to work in the hearts of your listeners.

Do not be discouraged when someone does not respond immediately. Continue to pray for them, remain patient, and trust God's Spirit to do His work. Be sensitive to His guidance and willing to speak whenever He gives you an opportunity.

Remember, you plant and water the seed, but God gives the increase. You are His witness, and the Holy Spirit is your Helper.

Speak the truth — the Spirit does the convincing.

💭 Reflection

Speak the truth — the Spirit does the convincing.

When you share the Gospel, do you rely on your own ability to persuade people, or do you trust the Holy Spirit to work in their hearts? How can you become more sensitive to His guidance as you witness?

🙏 Confession

The Holy Spirit works with me as I preach the Gospel. I am not alone in witnessing. He guides my words, gives me boldness, and works in the hearts of those who hear the truth. I faithfully share the Gospel with love and confidence, trusting Him to bring conviction and draw people to Christ.
