DAY 12 – THE WORD WORKS

📖 Scripture

Isaiah 55:11

"My word... shall accomplish what I please."

🌱 Meditation

You don't need eloquence or impressive words to share the Gospel. The Word of God carries its own power and is able to accomplish His purpose in the hearts of those who hear it.

God assures us that His Word never returns to Him empty. Just as rain waters the earth and makes it fruitful, His Word goes forth to fulfil the purpose for which He sends it. When you speak Scripture, you are sharing a message that carries God's truth, wisdom, and power.

Sometimes we may hesitate to witness because we feel we are not good speakers or do not know how to explain everything perfectly. But remember, the effectiveness of the Gospel does not depend on your eloquence. Your responsibility is to speak God's Word faithfully, clearly, and boldly, trusting Him to work through it.

Do not underestimate a simple Scripture shared in love. It can bring hope to the discouraged, conviction to the heart, and transformation to a life.

Speak Scripture boldly; it never fails.

💭 Reflection

Let God's Word speak through you.

Have you ever held back from sharing Scripture because you felt you lacked the right words? What truth from God's Word can you confidently share with someone today?

🙏 Confession

The Word of God in my mouth produces salvation and transformation. I am confident in the power of Scripture. I boldly share God's truth, knowing that His Word will accomplish His purpose in the hearts of those who hear it. I do not depend on eloquence but on the power of God's living Word.

✍️ Personal Notes

What I have learned today:

Which Scripture I will share today:

Who I will encourage with God's Word:
