DAY 13 – EVANGELISM BY LIFESTYLE

📖 Scripture

Matthew 5:16

"Let your light so shine before men."

🌱 Meditation

The Gospel you live speaks louder than the one you preach. Your lifestyle should reflect Jesus in such a way that others are drawn to Him through what they see in you.

Jesus teaches us that our lives should shine before others so that they may see our good works and glorify our Father in heaven. This means that evangelism is not only about what we say but also about how we live. Our actions, attitudes, words, decisions, and relationships should reflect the character of Christ.

Sometimes people may hear us speak about Jesus but struggle to believe our message if our behaviour contradicts what we preach. Our lives should therefore support the Gospel we proclaim. When we demonstrate love, kindness, patience, honesty, forgiveness, humility, and compassion, we give others a glimpse of the life of Christ.

Remember, you may be the first expression of the Gospel that someone encounters. Before they hear a sermon, they may observe how you treat people, respond to difficult situations, handle disagreements, and live your everyday life.

This does not mean that you must live a perfect life to represent Jesus. Rather, it means allowing Christ to transform you daily so that His character becomes increasingly visible through you.

Let your life be a living testimony of Jesus. Live what you preach, and let your light lead others to glorify God.

💭 Reflection

Does my lifestyle reflect the Jesus I preach?

If someone observed your daily life without hearing you speak about your faith, would they recognise the character of Christ in you? What is one area of your life where you can better demonstrate the love and nature of Jesus today?

🙏 Confession

My life shines with the light of Jesus. I am a living testimony of God's love, grace, and truth. My words, actions, attitudes, and decisions reflect the character of Christ. I walk in love, humility, kindness, patience, and righteousness. I do not merely preach the Gospel; I live it. Through my lifestyle, others are drawn to Jesus and glorify my Father in heaven. My life is a reflection of Christ.
