DAY 7 – THE URGENCY OF EVANGELISM

📖 Scripture

2 Corinthians 6:2

"Now is the day of salvation."

🌱 Meditation

Tomorrow is not promised. Every day we delay sharing the Gospel, someone may miss an opportunity to hear the message of God's grace. We do not know how much time we or the people around us have, so we should not take opportunities to share Christ for granted.

Evangelism is not something we should continually postpone. There are people around us who need hope, love, and the message of salvation today. A simple conversation, a word of encouragement, or an invitation to know Jesus can make a difference in someone's life.

This does not mean we should pressure people or act out of fear. It means we should be willing, sensitive to the Holy Spirit, and ready to share the Gospel whenever God gives us an opportunity.

Do not wait for the perfect moment. Be faithful with the opportunity you have today. Someone may be waiting to hear the Good News through you.

Share Jesus today — not later.

💭 Reflection

Share Jesus today — not later.

Have you been postponing an opportunity to share Christ with someone? What can you do today to reach out and communicate God's love?

🙏 Confession

I act with urgency in sharing the Gospel. I do not take opportunities to reach others for granted. I am willing and ready to share the love of Christ. Today, someone will meet Jesus through me.

✍️ Personal Notes

What I have learned today:

Who I will reach out to today:

One practical step I will take to share Jesus:
